The Southwest Association of Pre-Law Advisors is an organization comprised of pre-law advisors from colleges and universities throughout the southwestern United States. Each year, SWAPLA sponsors a Law School Caravan that tours throughout the region, bringing the best law schools to several locations. SWAPLA also facilitates networking between advisors and one another, as well as between advisors and law school professionals. Membership in SWAPLA will provide you with excellent resources to aid in your ability to advise the pre-law student.

Dues for SWAPLA membership for the academic year 2009-2010 are $25. Payment should be received by October 22nd, 2009. Late dues are not prorated. They remain $25 and will be in effect for the academic year 2009-2010 only. If you attend the SWAPLA Conference in October 2009, your dues are included in the conference price.

Payment should be made by check addressed to SWAPLA or via paypal at www.swapla.org. Please mark the appropriate line and return this form to the address provided below:
